LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Bring us that wood which you promised us.

—Perhaps the dry season will begin when another tariff debate starts up.

—A pension was granted, on the 13th inst., to John Masters of Sedgewickville.

—For 5 cents you can get 4 Havana cigars at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo.

—Wisconsin's Governor has refused to pardon Clifford, who murdered Capt. Hugh at Racine.

—Albums in endless variety at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo., call and see them.

—A warm stable will make the fall colt come out on grass in the spring strong and vigorous.

—Fall is here, and so is the largest stock of men's Boots and Shoes for Fall wear, at W. S. King's.

—The defective line always puts in its appearance in the fall of the year, when the wild geese southward fly.

—Wheeler and Alliance goods are going at Wheeler and Alliance prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—Two-story fruit trees may be fashionable in some parts, but it is a fashion fraught with the most ludicrous folly.

—Fine Perfumery, a large and elegant stock of all kinds, by the bottle or ounce at Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—These are days to try men's souls. Instead of "Hail to the Chief," we are all singing "We come to the Handkerchief."

—"No," said the boodle Al-derman, "I shall not lend my vote to such a thieving scheme." And he didn't lend it. He sold it.

—For $1.75 cents you can get a handsome nickel alarm clock worth $2.50. Where? Of course, the only place is Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—It has been discovered that horse meat is being largely used in the manufacture of Bologna sausage. It's about time to say when to this business.

—Young man if you want to make sure of her (you know) just make her a present of one of those finger rings, neck chains or a pair of those Bracelets sold by Dr. A. Sander.

"Gracious," exclaimed Mrs. Malaprop, "I read in the papers of a Congressman at large. I do hope they'll capture him before he does any harm."

—Ever and anon there transpires something new under the sun. The latest thing is the crushing bargains in Ladies Wrappers at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—If you have winter grain on a side hill from which the snow is likely to blow off a thin covering of straw will not do harm. Try "winter protection" for wheat to see if it won't pay.

—See the handsome walnut cased clocks, at Dr. Jaques & Son's. Prices very low, also a complete line of watches, cases, jewelry and spectacles which they are selling at unheard of low prices.

—Leaves make the best litter for sows and young pigs. Coarse straw is objectionable, as the pigs cannot escape being crushed when the pen is well littered with it. If straw is used it should be cut up before using.

—Monday the Alliance mill raised steam and the first flour was ground in the new mill. There were many present to witness the first start of the mill. Everything worked as nice as machinery could, which is proof that the gentlemen who did the work did an A1 job, and such it is. The farmers and laborers of Madison County can well afford to feel proud of such an institution and should do their whole duty to sustain it. It is quite a help to the town, as it will bring trade here which has been going elsewhere. May the mill prove a grand success, as our wish and the wish of every one.—Platdealer.

—We will accept corn or wheat on subscription.

—Holiday goods at Dr. Mayfield's, Lutesville.

—A son was born, on the 17th, to the wife of Frank Tucker.

—The Southeast Baptist refuses to exchange, for some reason.

—There will be a Christmas Temple at the Christian Church, Christmas Eve.

—An elegant line of China goods such as Dolls, Vases, Cups and Saucers, Mugs and etc. at Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.

—Wm. P. McCans and son, Chris, who have been working in Charleston, returned home Sunday.

LOOKOUT—For cold weather! Also lookout for the unprecedented bargains in Ladies Cloaks at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—James Fields was tried, last week before Squire McGhee, on a charge of selling whiskey without license, and came clear.

—A few short moons and our hill sides will be spotted with the folks tobogganing. But even right now Toboggans cannot be bought anywhere as cheap as they can at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—What is the difference between a pugilist and a bell? One peels before he struck, and the other is struck before it peels.

—Jesse Lutes of Lutesville has a large and complete stock of all kinds of Christmas candies which he will sell dirt cheap. The patronage of School Teachers is earnestly solicited.

—Editor to persistent writer: Now, if you'll promise me on your honor never to send me anything more of yours, I'll print this poem.

—Parties intending to buy jewelry should not fail to see the stock which Dr. Sander has recently purchased. By buying in large quantities and paying cash he gets a large discount.

—The pastor of the Lutheran Church of Cape Girardeau came up last week and baptized the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bohusack. Mrs. B's father came up with him.

—Halloo Yourself! Look out for the grandest stock of Holiday goods you have ever seen, at Dr. Jaques & Son's New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo. Now we are the acknowledged headquarters for every thing in this line. New goods every day.

—"You are regular miser!" exclaimed Mrs. Snopser, when her husband refused to give her $25 she asked for. "No, not a miser," replied Snopser; "merely an economizer."—Harper's Bazar.

—The chilly blasts of Winter will soon be howling round your door. It's a chilly fact to all competition that THE ONE PLACE in Bollinger county where you can buy the best Winter Boots and Shoes for the least money is at W. S. King's Lutesville.

—You can overfeed as well as underfeed a colt; do neither; feed just right. Give good nourishing food from the start, but do not force them; they are neither hogs nor steers, and the early maturity business may be overdone if you try to force them.

—Grand Guessing scheme free. You may be entitled to one or more of the elegant prizes offered by Dr. Jaques & Son, Lutesville, Mo. in their annual prize distribution call on them and get particulars. It costs you nothing to try it and all have the same chance for the handsome prizes.

—We speak of a million bushels of wheat as if it were a small thing, and it is when compared with the hundreds of 100,000 of grain annually produced. But a train loaded with 500 bushels in a car would have to be about 15 miles long to carry 1,000,000 bushels.

—On the 12th of September three spring lambs owned by William E. Mayhem, near Palmyra, Wis., disappeared. Three weeks later they were found, two of them being alive, under an inverted box, three and one half by four feet, that had

NOTICE TO ALL!!!

A. MAYER & CO.

blown over them. They had remained without food or water during all that time. Though very weak, they will recover.

—1000 children wanted, to purchase their X-mas goods from Dr. Mayfield, Lutesville.

—Don't forget that Dr. Jaques & Son, Lutesville, Mo., have a most tempting array of Christmas, New Year and Birthday cards at half price.

—See that the tops of the haystacks are all right. Half a day's work on them now may save tons of hay for next spring.

—Dr. Mayfield, Lutesville, has always undersold all competitors in Holiday goods. He is still doing so.

—Whenever you are compelled to allow a field to remain uncultivated for want of time or labor it indicates that you have too much land, and that it will pay you to sell a portion in order that your efforts may be devoted to a smaller area.

—To be hoodwinked is very unpleasant to any lady; but to be well and nicely hooded is a pleasure to all of them—hence, go to King's, Lutesville, ladies, for your hoods.

—A physician of Salem (N. J.) has a morning glory growing in his yard that is quite a phenomenon, a seed in one of the blooms having sprouted and grown into a vine of considerable length, on the end of which is another bloom.

—Numbers were fascinated by the St. Louis Fair and Exposition. And numbers there are who are fascinated by the fine Fascinators and their low prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

—More apples were shipped from America to Europe last year than ever before in a single year, the total amount being 1,401,382 barrels. The largest previous shipment was in the year 1880-81, when exports reached 1,328,806 barrels.

—The next President of the U. S. will be—however, that has nothing to do with the fact that Dr. Mayfield, Lutesville, has the neatest and cheapest stock of Holiday Goods ever brought to Bollinger county. Seeing is believing, so go and see the stock and you will then believe us so.
